WELCOME TO YOUR JULY - OCTOBER SEASON! ARTS AND CULTURE, LIVE AT YOUR LIBRARY

It's set to be another exciting season at Worksoop Library! Summertime can only mean one thing: the return of the Summer Reading Challenge. This year's theme of Space Chase is inspired by the 50th anniversary of the first moon landing, so you can also expect exciting space-themed author visits and family arts workshops. A collaboration with The Spark Arts for Children brings more not to be missed family theatre to the library, exploring maps, myths and monsters in The Girl of Ink and Stars. Plus, following the success of last year, we are excited to welcome the Fun Palace back to Worksoop Library.

Heritage enthusiasts can explore a wealth of heritage events, such as the mysterious happenings and darker side of Worksoop on Jennie Johnson's ghost walk. Be transported in time by joining us for our Wartime Worksoop Exhibition, or listen to Christopher Brooks share his fascinating stories of Lowestoftians evacuated to Worksoop.

This season sees the return of the Inspire Poetry Festival (23 - 28 September), with headline events taking place at six Inspire venues, including Worksoop Library. Heading to Worksoop for our Poetry Café will be the wonderful John Harvey - the celebrated crime writer whose latest poetry collection Aslant is published by Shoestring Press. Plus, we host an inspiring poetry reading workshop and the fun annual Poetry Takeover.

Jazz Steps once again brings artists of international renown to the library, offering audiences a chance to catch world-class music in the heart of your community. With these events and more, it's set to be an exciting season. We look forward to seeing you soon.

Inspire is registered for the Family Arts Standards for family events in our four largest libraries, including Worksoop Library. This means we are working hard to make families feel welcome. Look out for events in our programme and online with this badge:

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE 2019: SPACE CHASE

Saturday 13 July - Sunday 8 September

Free

Ages 4 - 11

The Reading Agency and Libraries Present

Help our super space family The Rockets track down books that have been nabbed by aliens!

Inspired by the 50th anniversary of the first moon landing, this year's Summer Reading Challenge is an out-of-this-world adventure. Children are invited to read six library books of their choice, solving clues and collecting special stickers (including some very stinky ones!) to complete their mission. Can they find the aliens in time to save the day?

CHILDREN AND FAMILIES
JOHN KIRK
PRESENTS: IF YOU BELIEVE...
A TRIO OF TALES
Thursday 15 August, 11am
Free
Booking advised
Ages 4+ and their families

Get ready for three fun packed, fantastical adventures as storyteller John Kirk brings a trio of space themed tales to the library. Hear how a mole attempts to pull down the moon in Jonathan Emmett's Bringing Down the Moon, find out what happens when Stanley decides to go to Mars and a not so well-behaved Martian arrives in his place in Simon James' The Boy From Mars. Plus, to complete the trio, enjoy a brand-new story by author Dom Conlon written especially for this storytelling presentation.

John Kirk is a storyteller. His previous work includes Michael Morpurgo's Private Peaceful, Roald Dahl's The Twits and Jeremy Strong's The Hundred Mile an Hour Dog. John enjoys bringing stories to life with dynamic and imaginative ideas.

A new play by Satinder Chohan, based on the book by Kiran Millwood Hargrave.

A tale of maps, myth and monsters.

the spark
arts for children

Forbidden to leave her island, Isabella dreams of the faraway lands her father once mapped. When a girl from the village disappears into the island's Forgotten Territories, Isabella and her lifelong friend Pablo go in search of her.

Following her map and an ancient myth, Isabella discovers that deep beneath the dry rivers and smoky mountains, a fiery legend is stirring from its sleep...

The performance is presented through headsets to give an immersive 360° sound experience. Headsets will be provided.

The Girl of Ink and Stars will tour 20 libraries this summer. See inspireculture.org.uk/inkandstars for details

LIVE MUSIC*JAZZ STEPS LIVE AT THE LIBRARIES PRESENTS:*TONY KOFI -
A PORTRAIT OF CANNONBALL*Tuesday 17 September, 7.30pm*£10*Booking strongly advised*Adults (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Alto sax master Tony Kofi fronts this loving celebration of the jazz giant Julian 'Cannonball' Adderley, with Alex Webb (piano), Andy Cleyndert (bass) and Alfonso Vitale (drums).

The group traces the explosive music of Cannonball from his first session as leader in 1955, through work with Miles Davis, to his pioneering, infectious soul-jazz of the 1960s. Tony Kofi is a multi-award winning musician (BBC, MOBO, Parliamentary).

Born in Nottingham and living in London, he spent four years at the renowned Berklee College of Music in Boston, USA, and has since performed with true jazz legends such as Courtney Pine, Donald Byrd, Dr Lonnie Smith, Eddie Henderson and Ornette Coleman.

LIVE MUSICJAZZ STEPS LIVE AT THE LIBRARIES PRESENTS:*JONNY MANSFIELD*Tuesday 15 October, 7.30pm*£10*Booking strongly advised*Adults (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Rising star vibraphonist Jonny Mansfield brings his exciting, youthful quartet to Inspire libraries. Through wide-ranging influences including Ravel, Norah Jones and James Taylor, Jonny has garnered mass appeal for his inventive compositions and virtuosic playing. This London-based group – featuring Will Barry (piano), Will Harris (bass) and Boz Martin-Jones (drums) – hold an array of impressive awards.

They have already toured the UK to great acclaim and been given generous airtime on BBC Radio 3 and stations around the world. Jonny's debut album was released on Edition Records in June 2019.

READING WORKSHOP
EVERYTHING YOU
 WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT POETRY BUT DIDN'T DARE ASK

Wednesday 25 September,
 10:30am - 12pm
 £5 | Booking essential | Adults

Poetry is an adventure. Some of us set off fearful that everybody else understands what's going on in a poem, whereas we may feel confused, inadequate, bewildered even. Some poems speak to one person but not another. This workshop explores a selection of poems to see whether and how they work.

Join publisher and poetry consultant Jenny Swann as we all expose our own ignorance, misunderstandings and general confusion on the path to enlightenment. By the end, we're hoping that all of us will be the richer for sharing our unknowns and our humanity, and will come to poetry with renewed excitement and faith in our own thought-processes.

If there's a particular poem that has always stumped you, or left you blank, or made you hate it, bring it along to share and discuss!

FREE EVENT
POETRY TAKEOVER

Accessible for families of all ages and abilities

The Big Draw invites us all to explore drawing in all its forms and this year we invite you to drop in and draw with Jim Bond's interactive kinetic drawing machines. The machines make your pen dance wiggle and spin across the page as you try to work out the next move to keep it on the paper.

Jim's clever and ingenious machines make the drawing experience accessible. No matter what your experience of art, this workshop is fascinating fun and suitable for all.

BOOKS AND READING EXHIBITION VOICES

Friday 18 October -
Thursday 21 November
Free

Voices presents a thought-provoking collection of poetry created by and with people whose voices, for health, social or age-related reasons, may be rarely heard, combined with photographs of those involved.

Poet Ben Norris worked with four very different groups across Nottinghamshire to develop a body of poems that express their experiences, stories and feelings. The groups included elderly people living with dementia, adults with learning disabilities, refugees, and people living with or affected by mental health issues. The group sessions were documented by lens-based artist Ben Harriott, and the resulting poetry and images were curated into this exhibition.

With special thanks to the groups involved: Woodleigh Christian Care Home, Mansfield; Building Bridges, West Bridgford; Bassettlaw Day Service, Worksop and Nottingham and Nottinghamshire Refugee Forum, Youth Project.

Voices is a community poetry project led and facilitated by writer and performer Ben Norris, with photographs by Ben Harriott, in collaboration with Inspire: Culture, Learning & Libraries. It was supported with funding from the National Lottery through Arts Council England.

Gallery hire

Are you an artist or a creative group who would like to be able to show your work to local audiences? Inspire Library Art Galleries offer professional, affordable exhibition spaces that bring great art to local communities.

Our galleries feature exhibitions by amateur, semi-professional and professional artists, alongside our own programmed exhibitions throughout the year.

Six of our libraries have galleries that you can apply to hire: Mansfield Central, Worksop, West Bridgford, Arnold, Retford and Beeston.

All galleries are suitable for wall-based works. Small installations and sculpture collections will also be considered.

For full details and application forms, visit the website.

Venue hire

Worksop Library is a great place to hold meetings and events. The library has two dedicated meeting rooms for hire, one with an interactive SMART board and one with refreshment making facilities. The two meeting rooms can be opened out into one large conference room to cater for larger groups. The Youth Zone room is also available to hire at certain times, which provides a relaxed and informal meeting space with study tables and refreshment making facilities.

Visit our website inspireculture.org.uk/venuehire for more details, or call Ask Inspire on 01623 677 200.

Discounts are available for community groups.

Gift shop

Looking for the perfect present for a book lover? Then visit our library shop where you'll find a selection of quirky book-related gifts, fun items for young creatives and other unusual finds.

We're an Arts Award Supporter!

Inspire is proud to be registered as an Arts Award Supporter and offers a wide cultural programme across our venues. Many of our events are free or incur a very small charge and many can be accessed by young people looking for opportunities locally to help them achieve an Arts Award. inspireculture.org.uk/artsaward
