WELCOME TO YOUR JULY - OCTOBER SEASON! ARTS AND CULTURE, LIVE AT YOUR LIBRARY

Blast into the summer at Beeston, with a packed programme of events, including this year's Space Chase Summer Reading Challenge, also featuring an 'Out of this World' exhibition with work by children from Round Hill School and artist and author workshops.

A collaboration with The Spark Arts for Children brings more not to be missed family theatre to the library, exploring maps, myths and monsters in The Girl of Ink and Stars. Book early to avoid disappointment!

Beeston Library is poetry packed with a NEW poetry collective, providing an opportunity to be part of a new writing community in the heart of Beeston. As one of the venues for the Inspire Poetry Festival in September, you can be sure to get your fix with word packed performances, workshops and events.

We will be welcoming an array of heritage experts to take us through stories of town halls, women and food as well as the opportunity for some local history on our Beeston Blue Plaque walk. Celebrate Nottinghamshire's recipe heritage and food stories past and present in our Home Cooked Heritage exhibition and talk.

Jazz Steps once again brings artists of international renown to the library, offering audiences a chance to catch world-class music in the heart of your community. With these events and more, it's set to be an exciting season. We look forward to seeing you soon.

Inspire is registered for the Family Arts Standards for family events in our four largest libraries, including Beeston Library. This means we are working hard to make families feel welcome. Look out for events in our programme and online with this badge:

THE GIRL OF INK AND STARS

Friday 26 July, 11am and 2pm

Library members: £3

Non-library members: £6

Ages 7+

Booking advised

A new play by Satinder Chohan, based on the book by Kiran Millwood Hargrave.

A tale of maps, myth and monsters.

the spark
arts for children

Forbidden to leave her island, Isabella dreams of the faraway lands her father once mapped. When a girl from the village disappears into the island's Forgotten Territories, Isabella and her lifelong friend Pablo go in search of her.

Following her map and an ancient myth, Isabella discovers that deep beneath the dry rivers and smoky mountains, a fiery legend is stirring from its sleep...

The performance is presented through headsets to give an immersive 360° sound experience. Headsets will be provided.

The Girl of Ink and Stars will tour 20 libraries this summer. See inspireculture.org.uk/inkandstars for details

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE 2019: SPACE CHASE

Saturday 13 July to Sunday 8 September

Free

For children aged 4 – 11

The Reading Agency and Libraries Present

Help our super space family, The Rockets, track down books that have been nabbed by aliens!

Inspired by the 50th anniversary of the first moon landing, this year's Summer Reading Challenge is an out-of-this-world adventure. Children are invited to read six library books of their choice, collecting special stickers (including some very stinky ones!) to complete their mission. Can they find the aliens in time to save the day?

Find out more about the Summer Reading Challenge at inspireculture.org.uk/summerreadingchallenge

Summer Reading Challenge 2019

EXHIBITION OUT OF THIS WORLD

Tuesday 16 July – Thursday 12
September
Free

Come and see the silly space poems and alien antics which we know will inspire you to take part in this year's Reading Agency Summer Reading Challenge. Inspired by the 2019 theme Space Chase, Trevor and Steve have worked with Round Hill School to create stories of an alien world and animated their ideas to create the exhibition.

Showing alongside the children's work are knitted worry monsters created by our adult knitting groups. These will be donated to Knit-for-Nowt and become tools for practitioners working with children with mental health needs.

FAMILY ARTS WORKSHOP SPACE STORIES

LIVE MUSIC*JAZZ STEPS LIVE AT THE LIBRARIES PRESENTS*TONY KOFI -
A PORTRAIT OF CANNONBALL*Monday 16 September, 7.30pm*£10*Booking strongly advised*Adults (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Alto sax master Tony Kofi fronts this loving celebration of the jazz giant Julian 'Cannonball' Adderley, with Alex Webb (piano), Andy Cleynert (bass) and Alfonso Vitale (drums).

The group traces the explosive music of Cannonball from his first session as leader in 1955, through work with Miles Davis, to his pioneering, infectious soul-jazz of the 1960s. Tony Kofi is a multi-award winning musician (BBC, MOBO, Parliamentary).

Born in Nottingham and living in London, he spent four years at the renowned Berklee College of Music in Boston, USA, and has since performed with true jazz legends such as Courtney Pine, Donald Byrd, Dr Lonnie Smith, Eddie Henderson and Ornette Coleman.

LIVE MUSICJAZZ STEPS LIVE AT THE LIBRARIES PRESENTS*JONNY MANSFIELD*Monday 14 October, 7:30pm*£10*Booking strongly advised*Adults (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Rising star vibraphonist Jonny Mansfield brings his exciting, youthful quartet to Inspire libraries. Through wide-ranging influences including Ravel, Norah Jones and James Taylor, Jonny has garnered mass appeal for his inventive compositions and virtuosic playing. This London-based group – featuring Will Barry (piano), Will Harris (bass) and Boz Martin-Jones (drums) – hold an array of impressive awards.

They have already toured the UK to great acclaim and been given generous airtime on BBC Radio 3 and stations around the world. Jonny's debut album was released on Edition Records in June 2019.

Author of the celebrated Notts-based, multi-award-winning Charlie Resnick series of crime novels, John Harvey is also known as an accomplished poet. His latest collection Aslant is published by Shoestring Press.

Join him to hear a reading of his 'new and selected' poems, along with the odd anecdote, in celebration of his life in writing.

"...a uniquely readable poet of great integrity."

Andy Brown

A prolific writer and brilliant reader, his latest work The Photographer at Sixteen (Maclehose Press, 2019) has attracted unanimous praise from across both the media and the literary community.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity to see him in Beeston and be part of what's sure to be a truly outstanding evening.

PERFORMANCE
WORD!
POETRY FESTIVAL
SPECIAL WITH GEORGE SZIRTES

Tuesday 24 September, 7pm

£7 / £5

Booking advised
Adults (under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Join WORD! - one of the longest running poetry nights in the UK and former Saboteur Award Nominee - for this very special Beeston Library, Inspire Poetry Festival edition, with poet and compere, Lydia Towsey, special guests - and the multi-award winning, George Szirtes.

Born in Hungary in 1948, George Szirtes' first book of poems The Slant Door won the Geoffrey Faber Memorial Prize in 1979. Among his many other publications, Reel was awarded the T.S. Eliot Prize in 2004 - a prize for which he has since been shortlisted twice.

He has also won numerous international prizes for his poetry, and the Man Booker International Prize for his translations of novels by László Krasznahorkai.

"Poetry's only obligation is to the truth. Whether this truth is widely popular or not is irrelevant. It should be the best truth possible and that is the only quality that gives it any hope of survival." George Szirtes

Praise for The Photographer at Sixteen by George Szirtes

"A courageous and remarkable achievement. I've read no memoir that moved me more." Miranda Seymour, Financial Times.

"A truly remarkable book about identity, image and memory. It is fiercely compelling." Edmund De Waal, author of The Hare With Amber Eyes.

To perform on the open mic, contact compere and organiser, Lydia Towsey in advance by email, via hello@wordpoetry.co.uk. Some spots may also be available on the night.

READING WORKSHOP
EVERYTHING YOU WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT POETRY BUT DIDN'T DARE ASK
 Friday 27 September, 2 - 3.30pm
 Booking essential
 Adults

Poetry is an adventure. Some of us set off fearful that everybody else understands what's going on in a poem, whereas we may feel confused, inadequate, bewildered even. Some poems speak to one person but not another. This workshop explores a selection of poems to see whether and how they work. Join publisher and poetry consultant Jenny Swann as we all expose our own ignorance, misunderstandings and general confusion on the path to enlightenment. By the end, we're hoping that all of us will be the richer for sharing our unknowns and our humanity and will come to poetry with renewed excitement and faith in our own thought-processes.

If there's a particular poem that has always stumped you, or left you blank, or made you hate it, bring it along to share and discuss!

POETRY TAKEOVER
 Saturday 28 September,
 11am - 3pm
 Free
 Just drop in Suitable for all

Our poetry takeover returns for 2019! Visit the library between 11am and 3pm on the closing day of the festival and you're in for a poetry surprise. Have a go at giant magnetic poetry, let the little ones enjoy the children's poetry trail, create your poems from book titles using our self-serve kiosks and more.
