

The Reading Agency and Libraries Present

SPACE CHASE

Summer Reading Challenge 2019

OUT OF THIS WORLD

WORKSHOPS

Inspired by the Summer Reading Challenge 2019, join our author and artist in residence Steve Smallman and Trevor Woolery to create silly space stories and an animated alien GIF in our FREE summer family workshops and visit the 'Out of this World' Exhibition. See reverse for more details.

EXHIBITION

Tuesday 16 July – Thursday 12 September
Beeston Library Gallery

Steve and Trevor have worked with Round Hill School, Beeston to create stories of an alien world and animated their ideas to form the exhibition. Come and see the silly space poems and alien antics which we know will inspire you to take part in this year's Reading Agency, Summer Reading Challenge.

COMPETITION

WIN an artist led workshop for your school or community group! To enter, simply email the name of your school/group, along with a contact name, number and email address to arts@inspireculture.org.uk using the subject line SPACE. The winning entry will be drawn at random after the closing date of 12 September 2019*

SPACE STORIES

with author Steve Smallman

Join Steve for this hilarious space inspired workshop. You'll be drawing planets, spaceships and lots of aliens and writing silly poems about them too! Steve is a silly poem expert as well as a brilliant illustrator.

ALIEN ANIMATION

with artist Trevor Woolery

Make an alien out of modelling clay and design a speedy space craft to zoom off into space. Work with our digital artist in residence Trevor to animate your creations and turn them into a GIF.
