Miner2Major
The Real Sherwood Forest

1) You can see the remains of King John's Palace here

2) The place to go for an adventure fit for a King!

3) Enjoy miles and miles of off-road forest cycling here

4) Descended on by Scouts for outdoor adventure

5) Possibly the most famous tree in England, if not the world!

6) Legend has it that Will Scarlet is buried here

7) Nell Gwynne famously took an early morning ride around this wood

8) We recommend a visit to this ornate Victorian pumping station on steaming day!

9) Home of a famous poet and his dog Boatswain

10) This country park has the remains of an Abbey, a lovely lake and even a pet cemetery!