

Why not have a go at making your own board game?

You could keep it simple like our example below and make a draughts board out of cardboard and use coins for the pieces.

Or you could be really creative and make a new Snakes and Ladders game or invent a monopoly board for the town you live in!

Have fun!

