

There are many beautiful and special species to be found within the Miner2Major Project area. Our woodlands and heathlands are home to many creatures, including some very rare invertebrates. Why not get creative with your colours on this dragonfly.

