

People of Sherwood - Sherwood's Changing Landscape

Welcome to the world of artist Emma Wilmot, who lived in the Sherwood Forest area of Nottinghamshire in the 1840s, almost 200 years ago!

This is a sketch of Sherwood made by Emma in 1842. What things would you add to the landscape to bring it up-to-date and reflect everyday life in Sherwood today? You can draw them onto the picture below:

Here are some ideas:

- Cars
- Bikes
- Road signs
- People
- Dogs on a walk
- Houses
- Aeroplane
- Street lights
- A bus stop
- A litter bin

People of Sherwood

To find out more about the Miner2Major People of Sherwood project visit:

<https://miner2major.nottinghamshire.gov.uk/>