25th - 28th August 2023

Newark

Hello from Newark Festival 2023

Over the August bank holiday weekend, a collaboration between Newark Town Council, Newark Town Board through their Newark Cultural Heart project, Newark and Sherwood District Council, Liz Hobbs Group and The Hustle Collective will see a vibrant and diverse spread of music, art, food and family entertainment filling the streets and venues of Newark.

The festival kicks off on Friday 25th August with a family-focused day of free events including a main stage in the Market Place, featuring magicians, choirs, music and dance from across the globe. Fairground games, circus skills, street performers, face painting, hula hoop workshops, stilt walkers, interactive workshops and parades will fill the streets, ensuring a fun day out for all the family.

The family fun continues on Saturday 26th with the Market Place stage featuring the best young performers from across the county, whilst a free entry multi genre music festival takes over venues across Newark, including The Navigation, Fox & Crown and The Rutland Arms. Street art, food and entertainment will be spread throughout the town. On Sunday, a fantastic line-up of 80s icons make for an enchanting evening with legendary artists Nik Kershaw, Johnny Hates Jazz, Toyah, and Carol Decker of T'Pau gracing the stage for an unforgettable night of performances in the spectacular setting of Newark Castle grounds.

Bank Holiday Monday, also in the Castle grounds, sees the annual Brass Explosion and Family Fun Day, a packed programme including participatory workshops, performance artists and a series of brass band performances. The evening culminates in a stunning fireworks display to bring the curtain down on Newark Festival 2023. Why not come along, relax and enjoy a full day of free family entertainment in the fabulous Castle Gardens.

If you would like to get involved in the festival as a performer, business or volunteer, or would like further information, please contact hello@newarkfestival.co.uk. Stay in touch via www.newarkfestival.co.uk
