

OU/ UKLA Teachers' Reading Group – Mansfield and Ashfield

The Mansfield and Ashfield Teachers' Reading Group invites anyone committed to developing children's desire, delight and engagement in reading for pleasure (RfP) to join us. It is an informal, friendly and supportive group for teachers, librarians, student teachers and support staff. Across the five sessions we will be widening our knowledge of children's literature and other texts, enriching our RfP pedagogy and documenting the impact on children as readers.

Do you want to develop children's pleasure in reading?
Then join us to enrich your knowledge and practice!

*Reading for pleasure is the single most important indicator of a child's future
success.*
