WELCOME TO YOUR APRIL - JUNE SEASON! ARTS AND CULTURE, LIVE AT YOUR LIBRARY

This season's events include three live folk gigs, a business networking event, the brilliant Henry Normal appearing during The Nottingham Poetry Festival; Magpies legend Les Bradd introducing his new autobiography, three fabulous jazz acts, a dedicated month of fascinating heritage talks, plus a beautiful exhibition produced by artists and schools around the county.

For families, we have a funny, moving theatre performance, a free Craft Bomb finger puppet workshop and more.

Writers won't want to miss a very special workshop that brings the chance to be part of an amazing experiment in group writing. Participants will join poet Julia Bird to discover how to create lines of poetry which can combine in any order, to make possible versions of a poem! Mind-boggling, inspiring, and unlike any other writing workshop you've ever done.

Creatives get the opportunity to work with professional artists Hayley Meaden and Nadim Chaudry in two wonderful spaces, Beeston Library and Lakeside Arts.

Plus, don't forget from 3 April we have new opening hours!

Looking forward to seeing you at our events over the coming months.

EXHIBITION ZINES

Saturday 10 March – Saturday
21 April

Free
Suitable for all

Members of the public and school pupils have turned their ideas into ink and published their own printed and bound Zines. Some are anthologies of poems developed in workshops with poet Andrew Graves. All participants experimented to great effect with image, layout, design and editing in Risograph printing workshops with print studio Dizzy Ink. We hope you'll agree the resulting exhibition of highly original Zines is stunning!

A Zine is a self-published magazine, often used to simply and creatively reproduce images, ideas and writing.

LIVE MUSIC
JAZZ STEPS LIVE AT THE LIBRARIES PRESENTS:

MANIÈRE DES BOHÉMIENS
Monday 9 April, 7.30pm
£10/ £8
Booking essential

Adults (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult) Manière des Bohémiens play improvised Django Reinhardt and Stephane Grappelli-influenced gypsy jazz and Eastern European swing. They are the most ecstatic and downright amazing live band you will have seen for a long while. They have been entertaining the folks of Nottingham and far beyond for many years, with their infectious blend of improvised, manouche jazz, and rough-edged virtuosic Eastern-European gypsy-folk music.

This performance is also available at Worksop, Southwell and West Bridgford Libraries. Visit inspireculture.org.uk/jazz

In collaboration with Jazz Steps

CHILDREN AND FAMILIES
THE MONSTER WHO LOST HIS HEADS:
STOP-MOTION
ANIMATION WORKSHOP
Friday 13 April, 10am and 11.30am
£3 per child, accompanying adults free
Booking essential
Ages 6 - 11

Oh no! The monster has lost his heads and he's off on a journey to find them, but who should he meet on his way?...

Join Sojo Animation in a relaxed workshop where children get to create clay characters, giving them a voice and a personality through stop motion animation. Each child will create a shoebox world for their character that they can take home and treasure. Plus, and here's the exciting bit, their handy work will feature in an animated film which they can find on the Sojo Animation Channel on the evening of their workshop.

EMIGRANTS TO THE NEW WORLD IN THE 19TH CENTURY

Wednesday 18 April, 2pm

£3

Booking advised

Adults

Archivist Josanne Peet uses extracts from emigrants' diaries and letters found amongst Nottinghamshire Archives' collections of documents, to uncover the courageous stories of those who sailed into the unknown in search of a new life. Find out how the travellers fared far from their homes, friends and families and whether their hopes and fears were realised.

BOOKS AND READING
MY WRITING LIFE

Monday 23 April, 6pm

Free

Booking advised

Adults

Mandy Ward has both dyslexia and Meares Irlen Syndrome but that hasn't stopped her creating and self-publishing her Cassy Kindly series of children's books. In this talk, aimed at dyslexic adults and parents, carers and educators of dyslexic children as well as the general reader,

Mandy will outline her creative journey and explain how curiosity and determination helped her overcome obstacles. She will share tips about writing and self-publishing, including how to encourage 'creative flow'. There will be time for Q&A and resources for you to take away.

BOOKS AND READING
THE POETRY HOUR
WITH HENRY NORMAL

Wednesday 25 April, 6pm

Free

Booking available

Adults

Award-winning screenwriter and producer Henry Normal sets off on a whistle-stop tour of ten Inspire Libraries across Nottinghamshire as part of Nottingham Poetry Festival 2018 (20 – 29 April). Henry will be joined by a guest local poet at each gig to share wit, wisdom and wonderful words, live at your library. At Beeston, Henry will be joined by poet Pete Ramskill.

Writers in the audience are encouraged to bring along a poem, as Henry will invite three people at each gig to read a piece. Or simply come along to sit back and enjoy the poetry!

COMMUNITY

BEESTON BUSINESS NETWORK EVENT
Monday 30 April, 6pm
Free
Booking essential
Adults

Beeston Library, in partnership with Beeston Business Network, brings you an evening of networking and creative confidence building. If you're a local small business, organisation, freelancer or social enterprise, then come along to network, share information and meet Sarah King, founder of We Are Unstuck - a design thinking agency. Sarah will discuss where and how design thinking all started, beginning with the godfathers of design thinking, the Kelly brothers, and what you can do to get started. An inspiring and innovative evening dedicated to the Beeston business community.

Beeston Business

Network is a local business networking group of professional services, retailers and tradespeople meeting on the third Tuesday of each month. There is no meeting fee or formal membership and they see new visitors each meeting from start-ups to established businesses. All are welcome.

beestonnetwork.co.uk

Design thinking is a creative problem solving methodology originally developed in the 1960s focusing on collaborative, human-centred design. While this approach is making waves across the Atlantic, it's less common in the UK, despite having the potential to make a huge impact on the way we interpret the world around us, collaborate and innovate.

BOOKS AND READING
AN AFTERNOON WITH LES BRADD
 Friday 4 May, 1pm
 Booking advised

Library members: £3 per child, accompanying adults free
Non-library members: £5 per adult or child
Booking advised
Ages 3 - 6 and their families

When the daily routine of three friends' lives suddenly changes, they discover with a little fun and some mayhem how to adapt their world so they can keep playing together.

A Square World is a funny, touching and quirky performance about the unfairness of being left out in a world designed for everyone but you.

Programmed in association with The Spark Arts for Children. A Square World is touring six Nottinghamshire libraries this half-term. For details see inspireculture.org.uk/popup

Folk AMONG THE FICTION

Beeston Library is delighted to bring a season of folk music live to the library, featuring performers inspired by traditional song from across the musical spectrum. Get ready to be entertained, enlightened and inspired.

LIVE MUSIC

KIM LOWINGS AND THE GREENWOOD

Thursday 19 April, 7.30pm

Booking essential
Adults (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Inspired by the folk tradition, Kim Lowings and The Greenwood perform their songs with a contemporary twist. Their live shows are an energetic blend of original compositions and traditional songs.

The motivation is to keep the tradition alive and to share their own tales. There are whispers along the grapevine that this group is one to watch out for!

LIVE MUSIC

HANNAH JAMES

Thursday 10 May, 7.30pm

Booking essential
Adults (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Hannah James emerged as one of the most imaginative and adventurous artists on the folk scene, first coming to national attention as accordion player and singer with the band Kerfuffle. Hannah has worked with Maddy Prior in the trio 3 for Joy, as part of a duo with Bellowhead's Sam Sweeney and is a member of vocal harmony trio Lady Maisery.

Hannah will be performing solo from her extensive repertoire, including songs from her own JigDoll album, as well as tunes from England and beyond.

LIVE MUSIC

RAY COOPER

Thursday 7 June, 7.30pm

Booking essential
Adults (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Ray Cooper, formerly of the Oysterband, joins us to play solo. An acoustic singer-songwriter multi-instrumentalist, Ray merges history, dreams and memories, producing music that is haunting, melancholy and romantic. His first solo album Tales of Love, War and Death by Hanging was released in 2010 to widespread critical acclaim. His second album Palace of Tears was released in September 2014 and Ray's latest album Between The Golden Age and The Promised Land is due for release April 2018. Join us for a truly captivating evening.

POETRY MYRIORAMA
WORKSHOP
Saturday 16 June, 2 – 4pm
£5
Booking essential
Adults

Myriorama originally referred to a set of 19th century illustrated cards for children which could be reordered to create a myriad of different images. In this workshop, rather than images, we'll look to create a 'myriad of words'.

Join poet Julia Bird to play with words and the patterns they make to create a poetic version of a myriorama – whose parts can be arranged and rearranged to make an ever-changing poem with lots of possible combinations.

Poets at all levels of experience will enjoy this innovative session and the chance to contribute to a collaborative piece in an exciting group writing experiment.

Adults

A chance to work with professional artists Hayley Meaden and Nadim Chaudry. This workshop is inspired by the forthcoming Rana Begum exhibition at Lakeside Arts Space Light Colour which will be on show from 7 July – 30 September 2018. You will collectively explore the themes in the work including, Rana's use of bright colour and bold shapes as well as repeat pattern, reflection, refraction and colourful shadows. You will create work together through experimental approaches suitable for anyone interested in trying something new.

Half the group will spend the morning at Beeston Library and half the group will spend the morning at Lakeside Arts, and over lunch the two groups will swap over using the tram that joins these two spaces together.
