Philip the dachshund is in love with Penelope and tries various ways to woo her with disastrous effects, but maybe he just needs to be himself. An uplifting tale with lift-up flaps.

Alternative version of the famous rhyme. Can the sausages escape their fate and make it successfully through the kitchen to freedom avoiding various perils? Great fun and would read aloud well.

Red loves reading books, but on her way to the library a wolf sees an opportunity to get there before her and pose as the librarian, and have Red for dinner. But Red isn't fooled and the librarian tells the wolf off for being predictable. Alternative fairy tale with wonderful illustrations and humorous rhyming text.

A queen wakes up to find a huge dragon ransacking her kingdom but suddenly the land's bravest knight appears. The knight is offered Princess Scallywag in marriage if he can get rid of the dragon. But maybe there's more to this brave knight than meets the eye. Humorous girl power fairy tale.

Little mouse wonders why there is a big wall and what is on the other side. None of the other animals know and don't want to find out. But when a bird takes the mouse over the wall he discovers the world is not as he thought. A simple tale about facing our fears and discovering what a wonderful place we live in.
