WELCOME TO YOUR NOVEMBER - MARCH SEASON! ARTS AND CULTURE, LIVE AT YOUR LIBRARY

The Moomins are coming! A new play featuring Tove Janssen's much-loved characters will start our Autumn/Winter season in super snowy style, and Story Explorers will carry on the wintry theme with Polar Adventures. Our programme for families and children also features a theatrical retelling of classic fairytale The Elves and the Shoemaker, a brilliant Superhero concert and the chance to get drawing with Steve Smallman.

There's performance for adults too: Emma Decent brings us I Don't Know What I'm Supposed to be Doing, her funny, moving story about mother-daughter love, dementia and library books! We have a Crime Café Special on Deadly Derbyshire and we're also delighted to announce our first Poetry Café, where you can share, read and learn about all sorts of poems.

Find out more about Worksop's heritage including a fascinating series of events delving into the history of Bridge Street; our exhibition about local men who fought in the First World War; sessions on Welbeck Abbey, vintage fashion and local newspapers and an amazing art/heritage crossover workshop about food!

Our varied jazz programme continues with unmissable performers influenced by a huge range of styles – from reggae and soul to Sinatra and South American love songs.

We look forward to welcoming you to the library over the coming months.
