Your Archive = Your Heritage

At Nottinghamshire Archives we preserve over four million unique historic documents which can be used for academic research, to investigate your family history or discover the heritage of your community. We work with people of all ages and backgrounds, and with individuals, local groups and schools. The records we protect on your behalf date back to 1155, including some which are older than the Magna Carta.

Our services include:

- Conservation of documents
- Free access to research facilities, including family history
- online catalogue
- Training and advice
- Book binding, preservation and packaging
- Reprographics
- local studies collections
- A wide variety of talks which can be delivered within or outside the Archives.

We provide a home for all sorts of documents, from parish records to personal diaries - so why not check your attic in case you find something you want us to look after for you?

Venue hire

Nottinghamshire Archives is a great place to hold meetings and events. Close to Nottingham Railway Station and with two meeting rooms each with a capacity of 35, it's an ideal setting for corporate, community and cultural events. Visit www.inspireculture.org.uk/venuehire or call the Archives direct for more details. Discounts are available for community groups.

About Inspire

Inspire is an innovative cultural organisation launched by Nottinghamshire County Council. We are a Community Benefit Society that is dedicated to inspiring people to read, learn and enjoy culture, with the help of our services.

Join us!

It's free to join Inspire and becoming a member will allow you to help shape the way our services are managed. Visit the website to find out more.
