WELCOME TO YOUR JULY – OCTOBER SEASON! ARTS AND CULTURE, LIVE AT YOUR LIBRARY

This season Mansfield Central becomes one of the host venues for the Inspire Poetry Festival in July. Building on the success of Southwell Library Poetry Festival, and with National Lottery funding through Arts Council England, we're bringing great poetry to four Inspire libraries. Mansfield Central's events include a fun children's performance from the award-winning Joseph Coelho, an afternoon of your favourite poems over a cuppa, and the chance to create your own 'porigami' paper birds!

July also sees the arrival of the children's Summer Reading Challenge in libraries. Produced by the Reading Agency, the challenge is a great way to encourage children to keep reading during the summer. Don't miss our fun activities inspired by this year's Animal Agents theme.

Later in the season, the little ones are in for a treat with a magical musical performance based on the story time favourite Augustus and his Smile.

Plus, with heritage in our Nottinghamshire's People season, family theatre, great films in our dementia friendly screenings programme, and more, it's set to be a lively season!

Look out for events with
this badge:

Inspire is now registered for the Family Arts Standards for family events in our four largest libraries, including Mansfield Central. This means we are working really hard to make families feel welcome.

INSPIRE POETRY FESTIVAL 2017

MANSFIELD CENTRAL,
SOUTHWELL, WEST
BRIDGFORD AND
WORKSOP LIBRARIES

Tuesday 11 July
to Sunday 16 July

Mansfield Central Library becomes one of the host venues for the new Inspire Poetry Festival. From your favourite poems over a cuppa to 'porigami' birds, an award-winning children's poet to the chance to write and perform your own verse, it's set to be a wonderful week!

For the full festival programme across all venues visit

WORKSHOP
INSPIRATIONS: WRITING AND
PERFORMING POETRY
WITH KEVIN FEGAN
Tuesday 11 July, 2 - 4pm
£5
Booking essential
Adults

What are your inspirations? Join Mansfield-born poet and playwright Kevin Fegan to explore writing poetry based on your own passions, and learn tips on how to deliver it to an audience. Whatever your passion – from football to fiction, heritage to horses, sketching to steam trains, or collecting to crafts – discover how to bring it to life through poems.

Use the library's own collections to feed your poetry, and enjoy the chance to share your poems at a reading later in the week.

Taking part in the reading isn't essential, but workshop participants can enjoy free entry.

READING
INSPIRATIONS
WITH KEVIN FEGAN
Thursday 13 July, 2pm
£4 (Free to Inspirations workshop participants)
Booking advised
Adults

Kevin Fegan reads from his work, and invites participants from our Inspirations workshop to share their own poetry based on their passions. Hear the acclaimed local poet talk about his own inspirations and enjoy a relaxed afternoon of poetry and chat.

Kevin Fegan has published ten collections of poetry and edited several anthologies. He is a regular performer of his own poetry and a prolific playwright for both stage and television, including the award-winning Slave and several plays and drama serials for BBC Radio 4.

READINGS AND CHAT POEMS PLEASE!

Friday 14 July, 2pm

Booking advised
Adults

Enjoy an afternoon of some of the best-loved poems of all time. Deirdre O'Byrne, Lecturer in English at Loughborough university, and poetry lover Sheelagh Gallagher share readings, and chat about poems that have a special place in our hearts. They'll also present a selection of poems nominated as part of the festival's Best Loved Poems Poll and invite the audience to talk about what their favourite poems mean to them. Join us over a cuppa for some poetry favourites.

WORKSHOP PORIGAMI WITH JULIA BIRD

Saturday 15 July, 2 – 4pm

Free

Just drop by Families and all

The festival's digital poet in residence leads a workshop on Porigami!

Poetry + Origami = Porigami, obviously! Digital poet in residence Julia Bird will show you how to make origami birds which carry secret poetic messages. Leave one to roost on display in the library, and take one home. Suitable for children and adults: the origami's not too fiddly, and little fingers will get lots of help.

CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

JOSEPH COELHO

Saturday 15 July, 3pm

£3 per child, accompanying adults free

Booking advised
For ages 5+ and their families

Performance poet Joseph Coelho has appeared on CBeebies Rhyme Rocket and is the winner of the 2015 CLPE Poetry Award. Come along to enjoy a series of adventurous, mysterious, laugh-out-loud and magical poems from his two books: Werewolf Club Rules and Overheard in a Tower Block. His poems will get you singing poetic devices, wondering about mermaids and exploring poetic worlds where Grans can be folded up and where kids are made of bright sparks!

INSPIRE POETRY FESTIVAL: BEST LOVED POEMS POLL

In the run-up to and during the festival we're asking audiences to name the poems they love most. Share your favourites on twitter using the hashtag #inspirebestpoems, complete the online form on the festival web page, email reading@inspireculture.org.uk, or write down the title and poet and pop your suggestion in the box at the library.

FILMS

DEMENTIA FRIENDLY SCREENINGS

Due to the popularity of these screenings, booking is essential.

Enjoy an afternoon film on the big screen in the welcoming setting of the library's auditorium. While open to the general public, these screenings are particularly suitable for people living with dementia, their families and friends. Lighting and volume are sensitively set, and the audience is free to talk, sing and move around. Doors open 20 minutes before the screenings, and there will be a 20-minute interval.

Free tea and coffee is available.

Access

The auditorium is on the second floor, and there is lift access. There is tiered seating in the auditorium, with steps. Wheelchair spaces are limited. Please arrive in plenty of time to take your places.

If you have any additional requirements or questions before booking, please contact artsadmin@inspireculture.org.uk and let us know. Visit the website for more details.

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE'S PEOPLE SEASON

A special series of heritage events exploring local history, family history and stories from around Nottinghamshire, against a backdrop of the Nottinghamshire's People Exhibition.

The Nottinghamshire's People exhibition was originally created by Nottinghamshire Archives with The University of Nottingham's Manuscripts and Special Collections team and is now on tour in libraries.

HERITAGE EXHIBITION NOTTINGHAMSHIRE'S PEOPLE: ANCESTRAL STORIES FROM THE ARCHIVES

Thursday 7 September -
Thursday 9 November
Free

Many people enjoy the challenge of investigating their family history and want to know more about the lives and times of their ancestors. Television programmes such as Who Do You Think You Are? show the powerful impact of stories from the past on lives today; whether your ancestors were humble agricultural labourers, local dignitaries or incorrigible criminals, they all have a story to tell.

Family historians today can access online resources, but it is still possible to use original documents such as church records, private papers, maps, wills and many other sources to uncover the rich world that lies beyond the census information and birth, marriage and death records.

HERITAGE TALK EXPLORING ANCESTRY.COM

Tuesday 12 September, 2pm
Free
Booking essential
Adults

Join two of our librarians as they discuss some of the lesser-known aspects of this valuable family history research tool. Ancestry.com is free to use in Inspire libraries and at Nottinghamshire Archives.

HERITAGE TALK
WEAVING YOUR FAMILY TAPESTRY
 Tuesday 19 September, 2pm
 £3
 Booking advised
 Adults

Jenni Dobson, quiltmaker, teacher and keen family historian will inspire you to think about researching your own family's stories, illustrated with examples from her North Nottinghamshire ancestors. There will be ideas on involving the younger generation in this fascinating process of detection, and an introduction to the range of resources available locally.

Arletty Theatre has collected more than 120 personal stories of inspiration from the people of Nottinghamshire; including the extraordinary tale of Mabel Humby, who created a legacy of kindness that spanned generations, a remarkable nurse from King's Mill, and a clay pipe smoking grandma who was mother to triplets, twins and a single child before the age of 21! Come and hear these fascinating memories, collected in a colourful Quilt of Stories, and add yours to the archive.

 Tuesday 17 October, 2pm
 Booking advised
 Adults

Gertrude Savile never married and lived at Rufford Abbey in her brother's household feeling very much a poor relation. In fact, we know a lot about how she felt as her trials and tribulations are recorded in her wonderfully frank diaries from the 1720s, commenting both on national events and the fraught relationship with her mother. Gertrude is an example of one of Nottinghamshire's people known to us thanks to documents preserved at Nottinghamshire Archives. County Archivist Ruth Imeson will tell the story using Gertrude's own words.

Crime and detective fiction enjoys astonishing global popularity. The range and depth of the genre is remarkable – from Lee Child to The Girl on the Train, from Val McDermid to Murder on the Orient Express. But why do we love mysteries so much?

There's no one better qualified to help us answer the question than Martin Edwards. He's the current Chair of the Crime Writers' Association, and in 2015 he became the eighth President of the Detection Club since 1930, following in the illustrious footsteps of G.K. Chesterton, Dorothy L. Sayers, and Agatha Christie. He's written eighteen novels, and the multi-award winning The Golden Age of Murder, and is series consultant to the British Library's bestselling Crime Classics. He recently received the Poirot award for his outstanding contribution to the field.
