WHAT'S

WEST BRIDGFORD LIBRARY EVENTS & EXHIBITIONS JULY - OCT 2017

WELCOME TO YOUR JULY - OCTOBER SEASON! ARTS AND CULTURE, LIVE AT YOUR LIBRARY

This season the library becomes a host venue for the Inspire Poetry Festival. Building on the success of Southwell Library Poetry Festival, and with National Lottery funding through Arts Council England, we're now bringing inspiring poetry to four of our libraries. Our events include an appearance from the hugely popular Hollie McNish, and a hilarious children's performance from A.F. Harrold.

The Among Ideal Friends children's theatre continues with a production written especially for the project and the libraries involved, while July sees the arrival of the children's Summer Reading Challenge. Produced by The Reading Agency, the challenge is a great way to encourage children to keep reading during the summer.

Plus, with jazz evenings, heritage events, art workshops, events for book lovers, and more, it's set to be a lively season!

Look out for events with this badge:

Inspire is now registered for the Family Arts Standards for family events in our four largest libraries, including West Bridgford. This means we are working really hard to make families feel welcome.

EXHIBITION VISUAL STORIES

Saturday 29 July
- Thursday 7 September
Free

Inspired by this year's Summer Reading Challenge theme, Animal Agents, professional visual artists and storytellers have worked with students from West Bridgford Junior School and Mattersey Primary School to explore visual literacy, make masks and create stories.

The resulting artworks are brought together in this amazing exhibition, and a sister exhibition at Retford Library Gallery, to encourage library visitors to take up the Summer Reading Challenge and join in the artist-led workshops in libraries across the county.

FAMILY ARTS WORKSHOP

VISUAL STORIES

Tuesday 1 August,

10am - 12pm

Free

Booking essential

For ages 5° and their families

Have fun making your own masks and tell your own original, imaginative stories inspired by this year's Summer Reading Challenge theme:
Animal Agents. The library is delighted to have a professional visual artist and a storyteller to work with you in this free workshop. Get involved and be inspired this summer!

ANIMAL AGENTS: SUMMER READING CHALLENGE 2017 AT ALL INSPIRE

AT ALL INSPIRE LIBRARIES from Saturday 15 July to Sunday 10 September

This year's Summer Reading Challenge asks children aged 4 – 11 to help the Animal Agents – a band of furry, slippery and feathered detectives – to solve a tricky mystery.

It's completely free to join. Children read six library books over the summer, collecting rewards (including very stinky stickers!) along the way, to solve the case.

Alongside the masks and stories is a colourful display of woolly bunting and clothes peg pals made by talented library craft groups, Knit and Natter groups and library visitors as part of Inspire's 2017 Craft Bomb. The wonderful bunting squares will be heading off to become blankets for the charity Knit-a-Square (KasCare) in September.

INSPIRE POETRY FESTIVAL 2017

WEST BRIDGFORD, SOUTHWELL, WORKSOP AND MANSFIELD CENTRAL LIBRARIES

Tuesday 11 – Sunday 16 July

West Bridgford Library becomes one of the host venues for the new Inspire Poetry Festival. Don't miss an evening with the amazing Hollie McNish, a soulful performance from local performers Panya Banjoko and Abii, and a fascinating insight into acclaimed poet Joanne Limburg's personal experience of autism. For children and families, we're welcoming the hilarious A.F. Harrold.

BOOKS AND READING

JOANNE LIMBURG: THE AUTISTIC ALICE

In association with Five Leaves Tuesday 11 July, 7.30pm £8 / £6 Booking advised Adults 16+ (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Joanne Limburg will be in conversation with independent publisher Ross Bradshaw of Five Leaves and reading from The Autistic Alice (Bloodaxe), her latest collection which examines her own experience of autism and the loss by suicide of her brother.

Joanne has published poetry, fiction and non-fiction for both adults and children. Her memoir, The Woman Who Thought Too Much, explored her experience of OCD and anxiety. She has recently completed a PhD in Creative Writing at Kingston University on the subject of sibling suicide loss. Her creative project Small Pieces: A Book of Lamentations will be published by Atlantic Books this July.

PERFORMANCE HOLLIE MCNISH

Wednesday 12 July, 7.30pm £10 / £8 Booking essential Adults 16 • (adult content) (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Join us for evening with Hollie McNish - a poet whose honest take on being a mum has gained her a huge online following.

Hollie McNish is widely considered one of the most important poets of the new generation, and has thrilled audiences all over the UK with her compelling and powerful performances. Her hugely successful book Nobody Told Me, a collection of poetry and diary entries tackling the joys and challenges of parenthood with incisive honesty, was recently awarded the Ted Hughes Prize for Poetry. Her latest collection, Plum. is a wise, sometimes rude and piercinaly candid account of her memories from childhood to attempted adulthood.

Babes in arms welcome.

"Her poetry is welcoming, galvanising and beautiful. She's always been one of my favourites." Kate Tempest

WORKSHOP

WRITING FOR PERFORMANCE WITH PANYA BANJOKO

Thursday 13 July, 5 - 6pm £5 Booking essential Adults

Join Panya Banjoko for this workshop where you'll use the theme of 'relationships' to craft a piece keeping a live audience in mind. Suitable for all poets, from beginners to the more experienced, the workshop will encourage the creation of writing with performance at its heart.

PERFORMANCE

PANYA BANJOKO AND ABII: THEY, THEM, THE OTHERS AND WE

Thursday 13 July, 7.30pm £6 / £4 Booking advised Adults (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

Panya Banjoko and Abii combine their poetic skills and soulful sounds in a new collaboration featuring words and music. Enjoy handcrafted lyrical pieces which explore the theme of relationships in its many guises, from chance meetings to family ties.

Panya Banjoko has performed widely, including at the 2012 Olympic Games. She coordinates a writers' network and is also a Patron of Nottingham UNESCO City of Literature.

Abii's work has international reach, gaining airplay on Le Rapologue, BBC Radio and making NRJ Radio Top 10 in 2010 with Trust Me. She has appeared at the Stade De France, Fête de la Musique á Orgeval, and Zigfrid Von Underbelly.

CHILDREN AND FAMILIES A.F. HARROLD Saturday 15 July, 10.30am

£3 per child, accompanying adults free Booking essential For ages 7+ and their families

Enjoy the unique experience of a performance by A.F. Harrold: author, performer, poet, beard-wearer. Prepare to be surprised by the quality of his poems, the silliness of his poems and the loudness of his poems. Marvel at his funny stories. Wonder at his lengthy digressions about his cats and be confused by his dancing!

A.F. Harrold is a poet and performer who writes for both children and adults. His many volumes of poetry are published by Two Rivers Press and Burning Eye Books, including his collection for children Things You Find in a Poet's Beard. His other children's books include the very funny Fizzlebert Stump series (illustrated by Sarah Horne) and the slightly scary novel The Imaginary (illustrated by Emily Gravett) both published by Bloomsbury.

SYLVIA SOUTH AND THE WORD CATCHER BY FINEGAN KRUCKEMEYER

Sunday 13 August, 3.30pm Library members: £3 child, accompanying adults free Non-library members: £5 adult or child Booking essential

For ages 5+ and their families

There are stories you find when you open a book. And there are others...that wait to find you.

After spotting something outrageous at her local library, Sylvia South is off on an adventure, navigating streets on a borrowed bicycle to chase a strange little man with an armful of other people's books.

It would be an exciting story to read – if only she wasn't inside it!

YOUNG PEOPLE

READING HACK LAUNCH

Monday 18 September, 4 - 5.30pm Free Just drop by For young people aged 14 - 24

Join our new Reading Hack group and turn reading on its head! Hackers will meet monthly (usually the third Monday of each month) to discuss books, movies and music over coffee and snacks. We'll also get involved in Hack-related volunteering opportunities - which could include encouraging younger children to love reading, helping to organise a poetry-themed DJ set, creating book-related artwork - anything with reading at its heart! Come along to find out more.

WHAT IS A HACK?

A hack is a "clever solution to a tricky problem."
To hack is "to modify or change something in an extraordinary way"
[Urban Dictionary definition, 2009].

Reading Hack is led by young people who get involved in reading activities and volunteering to gain skills and experience.

LIVE MUSIC

JAZZ STEPS LIVE AT THE LIBRARIES PRESENTS:

STUART MCCALLUM

Thursday 21 September, 7.30pm £10 / £8

Booking essential Adults (Under 18s to be accompanied by an adult)

In this solo acoustic setting, Stuart uses three different acoustic guitars to reimagine and resculpt some well-known jazz standards into fresh shapes, as well as playing some of his own original compositions. His use of loops, soundscapes and tunings creates music that is balm for the soul.

BOOKS AND READING

BOOK CLUB LIVE: WITH STEPHAN COLLISHAW AND KERRY YOUNG

Tuesday 26 September, 7.30pm £5 Booking essential Adults (18+)

Don't miss the latest event in our Book Club Live series, when we invite two acclaimed writers to chat about their work, live on stage at the library.

This event takes us overseas as we hear from two authors whose work is set in different countries and spans different times. How do the authors bring places, communities and characters to life in their writing? What research is involved? What inspires them to tell these stories? Join us for evening of fascinating conversation, featuring:

Kerry Young is the author Pao, Gloria and Show Me a Mountain – all set in Jamaica. Pao was shortlisted for the Costa First Novel Award, the Commonwealth Book Prize and the East Midlands Book Award. She is Honorary Assistant Professor in the School of English at The University of Nottingham and Honorary Creative Writing Fellow at The University of Leicester.

Stephan Collishaw is the author of The Last Girl, Amber and The Song of The Stork, all of which are set in Eastern Europe. The Last Girl was chosen by the Independent on Sunday as one of its Novels of the Year. In 2004, Stephan was selected as one of the British Council's 20 best young British novelists

Book Club Live events aim to bring readers and writers closer to together.
